

Mayor's recognition awards

Fine and performing arts application form

About

The Fine and Performing Arts Award recognizes individuals or groups gaining provincial, national or international acceptance or recognition of outstanding achievement in one or more of the arts. It is the intent of this award to recognize individuals, or groups of individuals, as opposed to institutions, organizations or programs in which they may be participating. This award may also recognize other outstanding or significant achievements as determined by the Selection Committee. Achievement must have enhanced the image of the Municipality of Jasper.

Eligibility

Three years must have elapsed before previous Mayor's Recognition Awards recipients can receive an award in the same category, subject to the discretion of the Selection Committee.

"Arts", for the purpose of this award, includes literary, visual, performing, film, video and architectural arts.

"Group", means two or more individuals assembled together and having some common purpose.

Supporting Documents

It is the nominator's responsibility to present a convincing case for this award. Please describe in full detail the nominee's activities and achievements, including events and dates. Include media clippings, if applicable. Highlight activities and achievements under any or all of the following:

- Achievement as an artist
- Successful participation in competitions, exhibitions, performances or commissions
- Awards or scholarships
